

TRAINING THE PASSIONATE ACTOR COMMITTED TO EXCELLENCE

The Excellence Scholarship at TK Studio

TK Studio is thrilled to announce “The Excellence Scholarship”. This scholarship will provide $1000 toward tuition for the Two Year Acting Program for a Black artist looking to begin or deepen their training as an actor.

The Excellence Scholarship aims to provide an opportunity to Black artists who are passionate about pursuing acting training and are committed to excellence.

Details + Prerequisites:

Applicants need not have previous acting training or experience. Applicants should be committed to training at TK Studio for two years, starting in the Fall or in January. Applicants should have the ability to relocate to NYC, should the Studio’s classes resume in person during the training period. Scholarship is open to applicants 18 years and older. In order to qualify for the award, recipients must have been offered admission into the Two Year Program at Terry Knickerbocker Studio.

Applications are now open. Apply by completing the application form and submitting a one page personal statement addressing the following question: Why do you want to train as an actor, and what does it mean to you to be a Black artist who is passionate and committed to excellence?

The Excellence Scholarship has been established through the generosity of a recent Black graduate of Terry Knickerbocker Studio who believes in the richness of the work and the mission of TKS, and who wishes to remain anonymous.

The donor says of the scholarship:

“I feel so grateful that a black artist will have the opportunity to work with caring teachers, and at a place that is actually sincere. Our people over the years have been served from the bottom shelf, and so I think it’s great for our people to be able to get top-shelf training. It is a responsibility on all of our parts to make this commitment, and to take on a responsibility to our people.”
